

Daddy Issues

Claudia Valentina

I've been thinking about all of these fucking supermodels
Stupid dreams that they Mama said they should always follow
Pretty faces but nothing inside, it's pretty shallow
Chasing pavements today, but what about tomorrow?

I don't wanna let myself get bitter and regret it when I'm older, when I'm older
And I know if I let it, I'll forget it and my heart will just get colder

Don't wanna be like all these girls with these daddy issues
Running from them, but they know they miss you
I just kinda wanna stay up so we don't ever have to wake up
Wake up, wake up, from this, from this

I know sometimes all you want is to hear me say I'm sorry
But trying to take down my ego is a bitter pill to swallow
Hurt you before you me, yeah, baby that's my motto
It's kinda fucked up, I know, I know

I don't wanna let myself get bitter and regret it when I'm older, when I'm older
And I know if I let it, I'll regret it and my heart will just get colder

Don't wanna be like all these girls with these daddy issues
Running from them, but they know they miss you
I just kinda wanna stay up so we don't ever have to wake up
Wake up, wake up, from this, from this
Can't be like all these girlies with these daddy issues
Rather hate you than say they need you
I just kinda wanna stay up so we don't ever have to wake up
Wake up, wake up, from this, from this

Hmmhmmhmm dum
Hmmhmmhmm dum

Don't wanna be like all these girls with these daddy issues
Running from them, but they know they miss you
I just kinda wanna stay up so we don't ever have to wake up
Wake up, wake up, from this, from this
