

Hey I'm your android
Hey I'm your android
My heart is full of your memories
My brain is full of your desires
Your signal takes my breath away
Yes I'm your android
Lift me up and then set me free
Then I'll lose my fear and rise again tomorrow
I'll be strong if you set me free
Then I'll bring my hope
and rise again tomorrow
