

Why

Clazziquai Project

I must've been waiting
I must've been waiting
I must've been waiting
Don't know why

In between, your dreams
In between, your dreams
In between, your dreams
But it's fine

I sing this old song
I sing this old song
I sing this old song
Don't know why

I must've been waiting
I must've been waiting
I must've been waiting
Don't know why

Waiting don't know why

I must've been waiting
I must've been waiting
I must've been waiting
Don't know why

I sing the soul song
I sing the soul song
I sing the soul song
For you now

In between, your dreams
In between, your dreams
In between, your dreams
But it's fine

I must've been waiting
I must've been waiting
I must've been waiting
Don't know why

Why won't you cry for me
Why won't you try
Why won't you wait just now
Why won't you try
