

Nowhere

Clean Bandit

I still keep thinking that you
Would tell me the truth
But you never do
No, you don't (no, no)
Should go bought your mirrors and lies
The perfect disguise
Do you pay the price
No, you don't (no, no)

Yeah, I wish I could go (wish I could go)
Back to the start
And tell myself that I hold the cards (don't go)
I don't know (woo)

Why do I follow
When you lead me nowhere?
You take the dark road
And baby, I go there
There's a part of me
Somewhere deep
Down that still believes
That's why I follow
When you lead me nowhere

You let my love got aways
You're not gonna change
You're not gonna change
No, you won't (nah)
Staying up at night and I pray it gets better
Waiting for a change in the weather
But I ain't gonna wait here forever
No, I won't

Yeah, I wish I could go (could you take me)
Back to the start
And tell myself that I hold the cards (anything may be)
I don't know

Why do I follow
When you lead me nowhere?
You take the dark road
And baby, I go there
There's a part of me
Somewhere deep
Down that still believes
That's why I follow
When you lead me nowhere

Oh my, I just missed my line
Help me, I'm so blind
I just love your lies
How can you blame me?
You make him sound so amazing
Deep down I know that you hate me
Baby, it's so entertaining

Yeah, I wish I could go (wish I could go)

Back to the start
And tell myself that I hold the cards (I hold the cards)
I don't know
I wish I could say (wish I could say)
All the things I wanna say
And then walk away
I don't know

Why do I follow
When you lead me nowhere?
You take the dark road
And baby, I go there
There's a part of me
Somewhere deep
Down I still believe
That's why I follow
When you lead me nowhere
