

Cant Hide The Feeling

Clean Cut Kid

You get ready to your favourite song
In the final strip of evening sun
Fix your hair and put your lipstick on
In the hope that you might find someone

Suddenly my heartbeat speeds up just when you go

And it's you I'm falling for
And I just can't hide the feeling no more
My heart for you is beating
And I just can't hide the feeling

We go drinking at your favourite place
And I watch you dance your cares away
Fainted eyes that I had a heavy heart
Such a pretty way to fall apart

Suddenly my heartbeat speeds up just when you go

And it's you I'm falling for
And I just can't hide the feeling no more
My heart for you is beating
And I just can't hide the feeling

Whenever I try to hold it back
It's like I'm not breathing
You caught my heart in a trap
And I just can't hide the feeling
Whenever I try to hold it back
It's like I'm not breathing
You caught my heart in a trap
And I just can't hide the feeling

Whenever I try, whenever I try (And I just can't hide the feeling no more)
Whenever I try, I just can't hide the feeling
Whenever I try, whenever I try (And I just can't hide the feeling no more)
Whenever I try, I just can't hide the feeling

Suddenly my heartbeat speeds up just when you go

And it's you I'm falling for
And I just can't hide the feeling no more
My heart for you is beating
And I just can't hide the feeling

It's you I'm falling for
And I just can't hide the feeling no more
My heart for you is beating
And I just can't hide the feeling

Whenever I try, whenever I try (And I just can't hide the feeling no more)
Whenever I try, I just can't hide the feeling
Whenever I try, whenever I try (And I just can't hide the feeling no more)
Whenever I try, I just can't hide the feeling
