

Worrying

Clean Cut Kid

I just lost another week to worrying
I just lost another week to worrying
I just lost another week to worrying
Worrying stole me whole week again
Beat myself up like I was beating a drum
While each of those Sundays came and they went
Maybe I'm living my whole life in a hurry
Basically, none of it's been getting me anywhere
But people keep asking me how I've been
Well, worrying stole my week
I said where do you go when your eyes glaze over?
I wanna know, 'cause I'll meet you there
I'll be shamrock, not your four-leaf clover
You know you make it on luck in this world
Somehow, I never saw your shoulder
Right there for me to cry on
Then I blinked and this week was over
Oh, no I lost another one

I just lost another week to worrying
Worrying stole me whole week again
Beat myself up like I was beating a drum
While each of those Sundays came and they went
Maybe I'm living my whole life in a hurry
Basically, none of it's been getting me anywhere
But people keep asking me how I've been
Well, worrying stole my week
Worrying, worrying, worrying, worrying
Worrying, worrying
Oh, I just lost another week to worrying
Worrying, worrying, worrying, worrying
Worrying, worrying
Oh, I just lost another week to worrying
I did not ask for this cold separation
I didn't plan for the day, and it rained this far
This life is years in the making
But it's just a few months to rip it apart
I could tell my guitar
That maybe we could keep the lights on
'Til a new week starts
Oh, no I lost another one

I just lost another week to worrying
Worrying stole me whole week again
Beat myself up like I was beating a drum
While each of those Sundays came and they went
Maybe I'm living my whole life in a hurry
Basically, none of it's been getting me anywhere
But people keep asking me how I've been
Well, worrying stole my week
Worrying, worrying, worrying, worrying
Worrying, worrying
Oh, I just lost another week to worrying
Worrying, worrying, worrying, worrying
Worrying, worrying, worrying, worrying
Worrying, worrying, worrying, worrying
Worrying, worrying, worrying, worrying

Worrying, worrying, worrying, worrying
Worrying, worrying, worrying, worrying
Worrying, worrying, worrying
