

Chinese Baby

Clem Snide

from the corner of my eye
the chinese baby cries for you it sounds like boo-hoo so rub my stomach for good luck to pass that driving test it's hard I know that green means go your boyfriends calling you to tell you that your through with love and all the stars above your head well it seems to weigh you down and it's decorated with a frown

it sound like boo-hoo, boo-hoo, boo-hoo
