You're so sophisticated Your mind's been liberated You're the first to notice when a movement's come and gone

Just as the curtain closes
I strike authentic poses
Now that we know all the words to history's sad songs

So don't be apocalyptic There's still time to get your last licks But very soon the glory will make shameful what is true

And don't be apologetic So what if it is genetic? The cowards still breathe easy as their secret's safe with you

Are you still feeling bad That your mother left your dad? Are you so sure that everybody lies?

Guess what your pains been done Took perfection by everyone And the first thing every killer reads is Catcher in the Rye

You're so sophisticated Your mind's been liberated You're the first to notice when a movement's come and gone

So maybe you should just release the doves 'Cause no one will survive the end of love

Maybe you should just release the doves 'Cause no one will survive the end of love

No one will survive the end of love No one will survive
