

Long Lost Twin

Clem Snide

the dark red shadows deep beneath your skin tonight I feel like Elvis longing for his long lost twin like a pigeon choking on a diamond ring

the highway is a ribbon it makes a gift of everything tonight I feel like Elvis longing for his long lost twin the sea of taillights that we all must swim

clean up the mess that Eve and Adam got us in 'cause tonight I feel like Elvis longing for his long lost twin open the gates of heaven and let me in

longing for his long lost twin ...

sometimes I wish I was never born
sometimes I wish I was never born
