

Butterfly

Cleo Sol

I see you, body full of hate
Crying out for someone to save the day
I tell you "God makes no mistakes"
Your time will come, have faith
You're watching others so hard
So much so you forgot to pray to the Lord
You're so fazed by the outside world
Don't forget your peace lives within

Butterfly, lost in the night
Running out of faith but your wings are still bright
Hold on, don't you cave in yet
Your spirit's much stronger, don't you forget

Butterfly, lost in the night
Running out of faith but your wings are still bright
Hold on, don't you cave in yet
Your spirit's much stronger, don't you forget

God don't make no mistakes

But you're on your own
What you thought was right was mostly wrong
But don't waste time thinking about the past
Soon you'll be free at last
Forgive those who focus on your dark parts
Let go of others who broke your heart
Set free friends who decided to part
What was meant to be will be

Butterfly, lost in the night
Running out of faith but your wings are still bright
Hold on, don't you cave in yet
Your spirit's much stronger, don't you forget

Butterfly, lost in the night
Running out of faith but your wings are still bright
Hold on, don't you cave in yet
Your spirit's much stronger, don't you forget

Your spirit's much stronger, don't you forget
Your spirit's much stronger, don't you forget

Butterfly, lost in the night
Running out of faith but your wings are still bright
Hold on, don't you cave in yet
Your spirit's much stronger, don't you forget

Butterfly, lost in the night
Running out of faith but your wings are still bright
Hold on, don't you cave in yet
Your spirit's much stronger, don't you forget

Your spirits much stronger, don't you forget
Your spirits much stronger, don't you forget
