

One Day

Cleo Sol

And it feels like I was born to be free
Flyin' higher, just you and me
And it feels like I was born to be free
Flyin' higher, just you and me

Let me know if you're afraid
I can't be nothing without you
Don't hide away

Don't look back
The sun will come
Don't run alone, love
Don't leave without me

One day, you'll be older
One day, you'll be smarter
When the rain washes away the pain
Just love me the same

And it feels like I was born to be free
Flyin' higher, just you and me
And it feels like I was born to be free
Flyin' higher, just you and me

Just started to live your life
I know you fell from your mother's tree, but you
Just started to live your life
You can't live someone else's dream
Just started to live your life
Just started, just started
Just started to live your life
Just started to live your life
I know you fell from your mother's tree, but you
Just started to live your life
You can't live someone else's dream
Just started to live your life
Just started
Just started to live your life

Learn to love yourself
And one day, you'll be free
Free, free

One day
You'll make it out of here
One day
You'll make it out of here
Ooh, ooh

Hello
Hello
Hello

Hope you know that you're my world
No way you're lonely
In times of trouble, just call on me
And I'll drop everything

Only you can make me do this
Only you have made me fall quick
I 'm
Always here for you
My angel born in June
The sunshine follows you
Your love helped me push through
My angel born in June
The sunlight follows you
