

Why Don't You

Cleo Sol

Why don't you just let go
And quiet down your ego
Don't complain about finance
I know your daddy weren't a real man

Go ahead and live your dreams
To me you're stronger than a whole team
I know you can't relax
And you don't want me to know that

I see you work real hard
You wanna help your friends
But trust me, baby, you don't owe them
Don't take on people's problems

I wanna see you smile
Even when you think I'm angry
It's true it might take a while
But it's between you and me

Where sum
Where sum
No no, no no

I know you check my texts
Don't you worry about my ex
I might be on his mind
But I never reply

Remember on the weekend
I said I'd make some changes
And you said you'd do the same thing
And I don't wanna fight my king

I held you when you was weak
You caught me on my knees
Don't pressure me for some kids
And I won't pressure you for marriage

I know it's never the right time
But we gotta do things on our time
Sometime I still doubt myself
But at least now I love myself
And I am quite emotional
That's why you can't get close at all
So I start to push away
The ones that love me
'Cause I'm scared that they might walk away
I'm not perfect
So I try everyday and I grow a little bit
Read a little more so I can educate my kids
Eat for my soul and cleanse my spirit
Pray 'cause I'm ready for the bloom of the seed
Peace and serenity is all that I need

Sometimes we fall in love
Love is always in us

Sometimes we fall in love

Where sum
Where sum
Oh no, no, no

Eat, pray, love, grow
