

2008

cleopatrck

I've foreseen
Meeting my defeat
Scored in Wilhelm Scream
Trapdoor so discreetly placed beneath my feet
Make a meal of me
Before my final speech

And what I meant to say
Is things ain't really been the same
Since like 2008
And though I can't convey all the ways you've changed
I'm trying anyway
For my own sake

I'm not sure
I remember how it was before
If you got it in ya anymore
If you ever really cared at all
Say so
Cuz I'm sick of being on my own
If you need me won't you let me know
If you need me won't you let me know

Well I guess
Well I guess
I guess
I guess

But I'm not sure
I remember how it was before
If you got it in ya anymore
If you ever really cared at all
Then say so
Cuz I'm sick of being on my own
If you need me won't you let me know
If you need me won't you let me know
Well I guess, I guess, I guess

But I'm not sure
I remember how it was before
If you got it in ya anymore
If you ever really cared at all
Say so
Cuz I'm sick of being on my own
If you give a fuck just let me know

When you give a fuck just let me know
When you give a fuck just let me know
When you give a fuck just let me know
When you give a fuck just let me know
When you give a fuck just let me know
