Lukey honey have you lost yourself?
I said I think I've lost my will and all

I know I'm young but I'm scared of hell, does god know I've been running through these halls?

Crucify a child's mind
Tell him true friends are hard to find
But in the wrong place at the right time
Lord knows I found mine

Children children rake a look at yourself
A gold star if you fit inside the norms

And all the others pray to save yourselves
A bunch of sinners from the moment you were born

Crucify a child's mind
Tell him true friends are hard to find
But in the wrong place at the right time
Lord knows I found mine

But don't ask why, lord were born to die
it's the human curse
It's a, genocide
But they could have been white, so it could have been worse

Crucify a child's mind
Tell him true friends are hard to find
But in the wrong place at the right time
