

SARAH

cleopatrck

Sarah says you waste your life
If you don't fight for her side
She's waning with the fake moon tides
She does lines, but not that kind

She'll really mean them
Not just repeat them
Pull you down for nothing

All my fault
Nothing's changed
All at once
Fake moon came
Made it all okay

Sarah says you waste your life
If you don't fight for her side
She's waning with the fake moon tides

She'll really mean 'em
Not just repeat 'em
Sell you out for nothing
