

SCARING ME

cleopatrick

All my secrets somehow spread
Now all the worst things I did
Are in the air instead of in my hands
I swear you always know where I am
And somehow hear the things I said
Beneath my breath when you're not there
I swear
I swear

You're scaring me
There's things I've done
When left alone
Friends I've wronged
Reaped and sown
All behind closed doors
Yet somehow you know

And it's scaring me
It's scaring me
It's scaring me
It's scaring me

It's scaring me

My sweet machine
In ionizing cold sweat
As cosmic beams
And single event upsets start
Showing teeth
As the quantum foam betrays me
Said oh god damnit lately

You're scaring me
You're scaring me
You're scaring me
You're scaring me

You're scaring me
You're scaring me
