

All In

Clever

DJ Victoriouz with me in the buildin'!

Dive headfirst, deep in that water like Michael Phelps
Keep lettin' that lead burst, he just want bodies under his belt
Pills got his mind twisted, he ain't actin' like his self
They don't know what's goin' on inside, we cryin' out for help Standin' in these streets so long, so much anxiety I felt
I gave you all of me, how I'm supposed to love somebody else?
She just want likes on the 'Gram and new designer off the shelf
Lord, it's so many questions, why I got the hand that I was dealt?
Please forgive me for my foolishness, I hope you understand
I just pray that I stay humble, every loss made me a man

Took a loss, took a life, we was all in Put our life on the line, we was all in
Took some losses but we ballin'
Got our racks up, we ain't fallin' down
Throw some racks up, they keep fallin'
Took some losses but we ballin'
God's children, but we all sin
Shawtys hot, like they in Austin (Uh)
They saw bosses when we walked in (Whatcha hear about?)

How many times a day you scroll on IG and see dead niggas? (Dead niggas)

Can't get up with him, he feds
I don't show haters love, I keep that to a minimum now I don't shake any hands
On the net, he was grillin' like some type of killer
When we get up with him, he fans (Fanned out)
Lil' couple milli', he ran up (Uh)
Used to be good with some bands (Uh, uh)
Pulled up dolo to pick up the cash and I'm up
I ain't even need none of my friends
Posted up on Essex at 7 AM, we was off of Xans (Off Xans)
Now we got hoes at 7 AM in the loft, slayin' 'em
I heard for that bitch, you would cross your mans
Can't hang with us, he off-brand
Everybody real great from the sideline
Why I don't ever see y'all play?
Why y'all gon' dick ride niggas then don't support any one nigga suppose to be y'all mans
Me and my niggas with all that, we kept 'em all, shit, they gon' have to try us all then
And ain't not one of my niggas gon' sellout, gon' have to buy us all then Under that water there's some shit in, I can not give in, just got to break all the laws then
Stay out that water unless you ready to swim with grown men
