Bella

Clever

Drinking while the sun down [?]
I'ma take another shot 'cause you said that I care
Baby if I tell you I'm just okay then I'm good
Baby I'm good, baby I'm good

Oh drink and drive, feel alive, think I love you after all
I don't even care I've been spending weeks on Adderall
I'm better
I wish that I could tell her
I wish that we could go again, I would do it better

For you I would die
Just want to spend my whole life
Memories deep in my mind
Can you just love me tonight
I want to go with you, I
I just want to get wasted with you
I smoke to numb the pain that's buried deep inside of my head
Oh baby you're the one our love is gonna rip us to shreds
It's gonna to rip us to shreds
I still want you in my bed
I still want you in my bed

A million years again we can never be friends
I hate when we fight 'cause I get scared it's the end
You're driving me crazy, got your voice in my head
I got your voice in my head
I got your voice in my head

Drinking while the sun down [?]
I'ma take another shot 'cause you said that I care
Baby if I tell you I'm just okay then I'm good
Baby I'm good, baby I'm good

Baby I'm good, good as I want to be
I've never really quite understood what you want from me
And I just want your company
Don't you accompany me
But tonight I'll be alone 'cause baby I'm good
Don't think I could make it work but I don't think we should Tried to get your face soon as I roll another wood
I'd let you take your place oh baby only if you could
But the way you make me feel, oh baby
I think we both afraid to be alone
I think it's safe to say that this the place that we belong
If I can't make you stay I hate to say I need you gone
I'd rather be alone

A million years again we can never be friends
I hate when we fight 'cause I get scared it's the end
You're driving me crazy, got your voice in my head
I got your voice in my head
I got your voice in my head

Drinking while the sun down [?]
I'ma take another shot 'cause you said that I care
Baby if I tell you I'm just okay then I'm good

Baby I'm good, baby I'm good
