Darlin'

Young BL$$D, boy, you saucin'

You'll always be there when you need me, mhm
I'll hunger for it, then I'll feed it, I lied

I must've left you on a Thursday, at noon and at one
Your rings, your eyes-oh, God, have mercy
Oh, what have I done?
I never felt like I was searchin' 'til I found what to seek
I kept turning my cheek
And then you turned up this week
And I think I need it on next Thursday, I want what I want
I think I want you on your birthday, we'll go and be gone

I'm cold as ice, you'll never hurt me, let's make no mistake
I'll try my best not to fall, darlin'
But just in case, oh, don't you let me down (Mhm)
You'll always be there when you need me, mhm
I'll hunger for it, then you'll feed her, I lied

You had me wrapped around your finger, did I have a choice?
Your fingernails made me a singer, the hurt in my voice
I turned around and there you fooled me, I followed your ghost
I swear I don't fall like this usually, I keep the door closed
But I think it opens up next Tuesday, just want what I want
I think I want you in those shoelace, bygones can be gone

I'm cold as ice, you'll never hurt me, let's make no mistake
I'll try my best not to fall, darlin'
But just in case, oh, don't you let me down
You'll always be there when you need me, mhm
I'll hunger for it, then I'll feed it, I lied
