

Escape

Clever

I walked so that you could run
But you took that loaded gun
Put it to my head
Told me all my mistakes
Treated me like I'm fake
I'm through this
I'm disgusted can't help
Livin lucid so down
Heads a maze
Another demon in my brain
Gonna burn in flames
When I'm in the ground

I walk in hoping for comfort
I talk using the loudest words

Hey
Can you stop me from hittin the Grave
I'm tired of being
Afraid
I know you can't save me
From falling down
Hey
I feel so god damn
Depraved
It's my life I'm taking
Aim
Down the rabbit hole I
Won't stop now

Take my mistakes
Throw it in my face
Oh
I just keep calling in falling in deeper
But it's comfort that I come for Thought you'd be the one but now I wonder
My tears dry in the sun but now I'm sunburnt
And now you saying you done but I was done first
You grabbed a loaded gun and let the gun burst

Now I'm tired of all the lying
Tired of always crying
Tired of all your hiding ya
And the fire that's inside of me that keeps dying oh...

Hey
Can you stop me from hittin the
Grave
I'm tired of being
Afraid
I know you can't save me
From falling down
Hey
I feel so god damn
Depraved

Aim
Down the rabbit hole I
Won't stop now

I see all these eyes
Who are you
Tryna initiate me into your crews
Bound up in chains
Forgot all your faces
Life's just a game that we lose
Subliminal messages hidden in disguise
Lead the wrong path and you'll walk into demise
Into demise
Into demise...

I walk in hoping for discomfort
I talk using the quietest words

Hey
Can you stop me from hittin the
Grave
I'm tired of being
Afraid
I know you can't save me
From falling down
Hey
I feel so god damn
Depraved
Aim
Down the rabbit hole I
