

I Don't Socialize

Clever

Tell me that I'm on your mind
The hurt I feel [?]
Tell them that I'm gon' be fine
I'm fine, nevermind, nevermind
I got red in my eyes, I will not stay broken
I won't leave a broken heart, a word unspoken
Red in my eyes, but my eyes wide open
Tell me that I'm on your mind

I have red in my eyes, nevermind, nevermind
Close my eyes, take the knife up out my back
That shit was no surprise, I don't socialize
I was so sure lies was the truth all along

I don't hold a conversation
I don't want no confrontation
This shit breaks my concentration, I
I can wait, bitch, I be patient
Dealing with my situation
We just had out here trying to survive
We all have to go through things
And sadly we all know few things
'Bout love and loyalty and how they lie
How quickly they forgot your name
And nothing was ever the same

Just tell me that I'm on your mind
The hurt I feel [?]
Tell them that it'll be fine
And I'm fine, nevermind, nevermind

I got red in my eyes, nevermind, nevermind
Close my eyes, take the knife up out my back
That shit was no surprise, I don't socialize
I was so sure lies were the truth all along

Now I don't socialize
Now I don't socialize
