

I'm Dying

Clever

I don't wanna leave, I don't wanna go
If I have to leave, we might never know
Can anybody see that I'm dying?
'Cause I'm dying on the inside

Baby, don't cry
Just say you won't buy roses
I've been dead on the inside for a long time
Just say you won't mind if I fake a smile

Is it worth living? I'm dying
Lord, can you forgive me? Deciding
I got all these demons, they're hiding
They're just hiding

If I take enough of these pills
I could leave it all behind
But there's people who don't want me to leave at all
But how can I keep quiet?
I hope you don't mind if I fake a smile
I gotta wait 'til I die, this could take a while Hopin' that the rain might ease up
Goin' back to hell, but I freeze up

Can anybody see that I'm dying?
'Cause I'm dying on the inside
Lord, can you forgive me? Deciding
Lord, can you forgive me? I'm dying
I got all these demons, they're hiding
They're just hiding

If I put the pistol right here, I could ease the pain
Do you think they can tell that we're high? So high

Can anybody see that I'm dying?
'Cause I'm dying on the inside
Is it worth living? I'm dying
Lord, can you forgive me? Deciding
I got all these demons, they're hiding
They're just hiding
Can anybody see that I'm dying?
'Cause I'm dying on the inside
