

I'm Telling You Now

Clever

I know sometimes I keep it to myself

But I'm telling you now
I'm telling you now
I know sometimes I might hide
But I'm telling you now
I'm telling you now

Found myself when I got lost in your eyes
Ooh, you know how I feel, wishful thinking
Can't find the words to say, mmm
If your ring doesn't shine, I'll be drinking
I'll be quick to throw it all away

Now, I don't say it as much as I need to, I need you
I say nothing and just hope you know

But I'm telling you now
I'm telling you now
I know sometimes I might hide
But I'm telling you now
I'm telling you now

Found myself when I got lost in your eyes, ooh

How deep are the scars?
Can you tell me?
I'll try and meet you halfway, mmm
But sometimes I get low
I'm just a midnight shade of blue
But I love you more than yesterday

Now, I don't say it as much as I need to, I need you
I say nothing and just hope you know

But I'm telling you now
I'm telling you now
I know sometimes I might hide
But I'm telling you now
I'm telling you now

I've found myself when I got lost in your eyes, ooh

I know sometimes I keep it to myself
But I'm telling you now
