

It's All Bad

Clever

Hmm
JJ did the beat
Tank God
Alive in my heart

I spent ten racks on the day you left this world behind
Retail therapy ain't never lied
Sat down and contemplated suicide
I wanted you to see this
But it's over now for the poster child
Dealin' with the cards like the joker's wild dream chasers
Runnin' through life, death race speed racer
Rollin' up the backwoods leaf paper
Journey to the mind of a creator
Turned 21 and died a week later

And it's all bad, it's all bad
This time it was so unexpected
We just chase another dollar 'til we fall flat
We just chase another pill with a tall glass
And it's all bad, it's all bad
This time it was so unexpected (And it's all bad)
You never made it past 21

A man takes a pill, the pill takes a man
Died so young, bars on bars never bite no tongue
Taste success, straight ahead laid to rest
Private jet, wipe the sweat, final stretch
Fuck the feds, that's just how I treat 'em
Pilot better pray I never meet him
Fuck a snitch, wasn't much to gain
Can't just fly the fuckin' plane
Tears in my eyes screamin', "Fuck the fame"
Such an ugly game

And it's all bad, it's all bad
This time it was so unexpected
We just chase another dollar 'til we fall flat
We just chase another pill with a tall glass
And it's all bad, it's all bad
This time it was so unexpected (And it's all bad)
You never made it past 21

All legends fall in the making
All legends fall in the making
All legends fall in the making
