

Light The Darkness

Clever

I swear that you could light the darkness
I touched your face, it saved my soul
I can finally shake the cold
I swear that you could
One in the air, and I'm good
You take me there, and after
This pill bottle, I still feel awful
But you are just a light in the dark
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Look at me, couple felonies, couple enemies
They told me that I'd never make it
Now I swear they never say shit
I'm on some better way shit
Never [?]
Just don't tell her that's the same shit
I was nodding out, cotton mouth
More pills than the doctor's house
And no, I don't give a damn just what they talking bout
I made a mill out the deal, bitch, get rich or die
They try to sleep on my name, and I won't be denied
Soon as I fall on my face, that's when you light the room
That's where I catch me a case, you know I'd die for you

I swear that you could light the darkness
I touched your face, it saved my soul
I can finally shake the cold
I swear that you could
One in the air, and I'm good
You take me there, and after
This pill bottle, I still feel awful
But you are just a light in the dark

I was dependent on them pills
And I got pending cases
That shit been strange, when they say they love you
Blood in my eyes, that's why they judge you
I did my dirt in the streets, I ain't proud
Put my family first until I lay in the ground
Gave too much love to those that just try and abuse it
They told me that he told
I thought that they was just foolish, yeah
It used to be war if they played with you
But who 'gon catch me when I fall
I put another in the air, now I'm high above
But tell me why goin' and gettin' high ain't enough
When you were just a light in the dark
Like the pistol on my hip, you're by my side when it's hard
And you ain't gotta cry anymore
No, you ain't gotta cry anymore
Never mind, never mind
I was lost in the dark, but you were right there
And everything I love

I swear that you could light the darkness
I touched your face, it saved my soul
I can finally shake the cold

I swear that you could
One in the air, and I'm good
You take me there, and after
This pill bottle, I still feel awful
But you are just a light in the dark
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I swear that you could
