

Make Believe

Clever

JJ did the beat

Smoke in the room, I'm feeling myself
Smoke in the room

You make me feel like
Like I'm ready for war, I wonder is this
Real life?
Or is it just make-believe, I swear you're
Something like a dream, nothing like I seen
Before, are you listening?
I seem to run away when I think
I need it more than anything, oh

Maybe I bumped my head
Do you think I'm crazy for loving you?
Maybe I bumped my head
If I think I could find me another you
Maybe I bumped my head
And started feeling all these feelings that I never do
Maybe I bumped my head

And you saw through the dirt, I was washed in the rain
And I saw you were hurt so I stopped all the pain
We was lost in the night, you were mine when the sun came up

And you make me feel like
Like I'm ready for war, I wonder is this
Real life?
Or is it just make-believe, I swear you're
Something like a dream, nothing like I seen
Before, are you listening?
I seem to run away when I think
I need it more than anything, yeah

Maybe the sun was in my eyes
Trying to find your love
Maybe the sun was in my eyes
So maybe now I'm just afraid to look out
Maybe you're scared from all the times that I got shook off
Maybe you're dead inside from all the time they took off
Maybe they dead to you when it ain't even took much
I do believe you can see right through the nonsense
I know you see what I see, I know you want this
You give a fuck about me, let's not be cautious
I swear to God I'ma make you my forever thing

'Cause you make me feel like
Like I'm ready for war, I wonder is this
Real life?
Or is it just make-believe, I swear you're
Something like a dream, nothing like I seen
Before, are you listening?
I seem to run away when I think
I need it more than anything, yeah

Maybe the sun was in my eyes

Trying to find your love
Maybe I bumped my head
