

Pennies From Heaven

Clever

Mhmm, mhmm-hmm-hmm

Yeah

Oh, when it rains in the fall if the rain's in fall
I try to hide from the drops, no roof, no wall
Up in the yard or the middle of the street
I can see my reflection in the [?] of my feet
I looked down, I thought I'd seen a bird fly by
I look up and all I see was clouds in the sky
I started to pray, I felt like I could cry
It was only teardrops falling from my eyes
I asked him, "how come I'm so wet but I'm so dry?"
I looked to my left, I seen that bird fly by
I looked to my right, I heard an awkward sound
It was pennies from heaven as they're falling to the ground

It's raining pennies from heaven
It's raining pennies from heaven
It's raining pennies from heaven
So I'ma open my umbrella upside down
It's raining, it's raining, it's raining
So I'ma open my umbrella upside down

I can see the light, I can see the sun
It's so bright it blinds the existence of shine
The lines of grace, the work of smokin' a blossom
Extends for loyalty, therefore, you shall not cross
But together it won't rechange the route to evil
We put [?], knowing what it do to people
No [?]
Oh, one thing I know, I'm not here chasin' paper
I'm am counting all the blessings I receive from my creator
And when the pennies come falling to the ground I'ma have my umbrella opened upside down

It's raining pennies from heaven
It's raining pennies from heaven
It's raining pennies from heaven
So I'ma open my umbrella upside down
It's raining pennies from heaven
It's raining pennies from heaven
It's raining pennies from heaven
So I'ma open my umbrella upside down (Down)

Mhmm, it's raining
It's raining, it's raining, it's raining
Ooh
