

Stuck In It

Clever

How did I know you'd fall
How did I know you'd get so far so fast
How did you get so cold
How did you turn those lies you told like that

I shoulda known, shoulda run from the evil
Now I'm spinning my wheels and I'm sinking down
It's been hell in this bar, by myself
And it's starting to feel like I ain't getting out

The clock can't move it slow, now it's stunt taking
Whiskey ain't working after some sipping
Getting gone tires got some mud in em
I ain't going through it, I'm just stuck in it
Stuck in the past, stuck in the dark
Stuck in this knee-deep bottle of a broken heart
Girl, your memory ain't really getting real busy
I ain't going through it, I'm just stuck in it
I ain't going through it, I'm just stuck in it

Brick by brick, we built this up
Brick by brick, she tore that down
She got tipsy, out the door
I'm still ten toes on the ground
This is not no heartbreak song
We should Dixie on the porch
That shit hurt me but I don't want time
Praying it don't hurt me no more

It should be coming through the blinds
But I can't hear it say it like

The clock can't move it slow, now it's stunt taking
Whiskey ain't working after some sipping
Getting gone tires got some mud in em
I ain't going through it, I'm just stuck in it
Stuck in the past, stuck in the dark
Stuck in this knee-deep bottle of a broken heart
Girl, your memory ain't really getting real busy
I ain't going through it, I'm just stuck in it

Stuck like a Chevy in a ditch
Like my hand around this bottle, heavy in my fist
Stuck like a thorn in my side
Like the knife in my back that she left when she put it in drive

The clock can't move it slow, now it's stunt taking
Whiskey ain't working after some sipping
Getting gone tires got some mud in em
I ain't going through it, I'm just stuck in it
Stuck in the past, stuck in the dark
Stuck in this knee-deep bottle of a broken heart
Girl, your memory ain't really getting real busy
I ain't going through it, I'm just stuck in it
I ain't going through it, I'm just stuck in it
