

Through Some Things

Clever

I think that I would rather live my days in silence
Well I can't help but hear the voices in my head
And all they talk about is cigarettes and violence
I start mistaking all their thoughts for mine instead

And so I'm sittin' there, smokin' this square
Loading up this gun, I wasn't born like this
I just been through some things
I just been through some things
And now I'm sittin' there, smokin' this square
Loading up this gun, I wasn't born like this
I just been through some things
I just been through some things

Come take a walk with me, you won't feel no pain
Took his Jeep, so I don't say one thing
And on my name, no money, call me handsome
Your name's on her belly, I'm a real romancer
I think I'll find a hiding place for this revolver
Before I choose to go and stick it in your face
I'll probably need another smoke when this is over
I've brought two lighters and two bullets just in case

And now I'm sittin' there, smokin' this square
Loading up this gun, I wasn't born like this
I just been through some things (Through some things)
I just been through some things (Been through some things)
And so I'm sittin' there, smokin' this square
Loading up this gun, I wasn't born like this
I just been through some things (Been through some things)
I just been through some things (Through some things)

I could give you a semester, [?] losing it
And I don't know if I ever lose or win
Big headed with tough skin, never found a noose to feed
Mood swings got me sinnin', I've been through some things
I'm a G.O.D. in my head, no [?] depression
Too much weights on my chest hard to listen, gonna be no answers to my questions
They wanna break me down 'til there's nothing left to break, you
Do not think [?] round, like I'm [?]
Like an animal that's been caged up
Left [?], moved, too used to the radio
Anything she needs, she just gonna say the word
Flowers gold, [?] throw my name in the dirt
Wasn't born like this, no pain when it burns
I'm blessed, I'm cursed, I'm possessed, I'm turned

I wasn't born like this
I just been through some things
I wasn't born like this
I just been through some things
