

Turn Out The Light

Clever

Turn out the light I'm a slave in the dark
Oh, the darkness lives in me
The hurt inside takes a place of my heart
And brings me to my knees

Wait to die ain't got the patience
Dream of dying on occasions
Why must I feel so forsaken?

Will you turn out the fuckin' light on the way out?
Leave me to myself, I'm fallin' apart
Will you turn out the fuckin' light on the way out?
Leave me to myself, I'm fallin' apart
Will you turn out the fuckin' light?

Head in my hands, I debate on my fate
Watch the words you speak
Just play the role, stand up straight, take your place
Underneath my feet

Wait to die ain't got the patience
Dream of dying on occasions
Why must I feel so forsaken?

Will you turn out the fuckin' light on the way out?
Leave me to myself, I'm fallin' apart
Will you turn out the fuckin' light on the way out?
Leave me to myself, I'm fallin' apart
Will you turn out the fuckin' light?
