

When Only You Will Do

Clever

I thought about you in the wind, the other night
You must've felt it
You say to let it go, you oughta know I couldn't help it
Ooh, you know I'd rather love a lie than say goodbye
You fucking selfish
After all I dealt with
Then you wanna run 'round
Tell everyone town
Go and get gunned down
Till you get none now

If I don't call the fucking drug dealer tell me
Who do I, who do I turn to?
I may tell it to the drugs
I won't tell it to the judge
Or my family and friends
I might turn to the preacher, man
I guess it all depends
Tell me
Who do I, who do I turn to?
When only you will do
When only you will do

Don't let me catch you by they side
With loving eyes
'Cause I get jealous
I need to let it go, I fucking know
I just can't help it
Ooh, you know I'd rather fucking die
Than say goodbye
Just go to hell bitch
After all I've dealt with
Then you wanna go out
They talking about
Shit they don't know about
Till I get thrown out

If I don't call the fucking drug dealer tell me
Who do I, who do I turn to?
I may tell it to the drugs
I won't tell it to the judge
Or my family and friends
I might turn to the preacher, man
I guess it all depends
Tell me
Who do I, who do I turn to?
When only you will do
When only you will do

You say you was down to ride
You fucking lied, like I expected
I can see it in your eyes
Feel like the vibe is disconnected
Ooh, you get high and fantasize
About a life of living reckless
But I'd rather be fucking blind
Than set my eyes in your direction

So tell me how you feel about it
Bullshit, swear I'd rather never be around it
Love lost in the same damn place I found it
Whole lotta Mary Jane got my vision cloudy
I could never be alone when these drugs around me
If I don't call the drug dealer who I turn to?
Play it cool then they turn around and burn you
Kush got me in my feelings, I just burned two
All I do is make a call
He gone come through

If I don't call the fucking drug dealer tell me
Who do I, who do I turn to?
I may tell it to the drugs
I won't tell it to the judge
Or my family and friends
I might turn to the preacher, man
Tell me
Who do I, who do I turn to?
When only you will do
When only you will do
If I don't call the fucking drug dealer tell me
Who do I, who do I turn to?
I may tell it to the drugs
I won't tell it to the judge
Or my family and friends
I might turn to the preacher, man
Tell me
Who do I, who do I turn to?
When only you will do
When only you will do

It's awfully simple trying to love you all alone
It's simply awful trying to call your love my own
I just can't chase you down
