Everything Must End

Why do you walk in the dark Do you pray for the the day Can you find a way Can you feel the sunshine Can you see the light Can you live for tomorrow Everything must be right

We can be lovers We can just be friends We can be selfish Everything might end

Are you alive or are you dead on your feet Can you feel the moment Can you deal with the pain Can you feel the sunshine Can you see the light Can you hold on forever You've got nothing to fight

We can be lovers We can just be friends We can be selfish Everything must end Client
