All At Once

Cliff Richard

All at once, it's you, it's you for me.
And all at once, there's blossom on each tree.

It's so thrilling and so new to me,
This enchantment that you do to me
And forever in your spell I'll be.

All at once, my doubts and fears are past.
I feel as though I've come back home at last.
I thought I was fancy-free, till I felt this magic glow.
Now, it's you for me and all at once I know.

All at once, my doubts and fears are past.
I feel as though I've come back home at last.
I thought I was fancy-free, till I felt this magic glow.
Now, it's you for me and all at once I know.
