

Another Christmas Day

Cliff Richard

How can I ignore the claim that no one came
And still You came to save us from what we are
Can we deny what's gone before
The light that led us to your door
Became our morning star

Created to love but we suffered a fall
Growing further away the fold
Creating a tinsel illusion of You
Forgetting the truth we'd been told

Take this Christmas time we give
To cover the shame and hide the guilt
That keeps Your love at bay

We were created to love but we suffered a fall
Growing further away from the fold
Creating a tinsel illusion of you
Forgetting the truth we'd been told

Let's make a change, it's not too late
The King stands tall, prepared to wait
For another Christmas Day

He'll wait another Christmas Day
He'll wait another Christmas Day
He'll wait another Christmas Day

He keeps on waiting, He keeps on waiting
Through another Christmas Day
Jingle bells go jingle

He keeps on waiting, He keeps on waiting
Through another Christmas Day
Christmas trees and tinsel

He keeps on waiting, He keeps on waiting
Through another Christmas Day
Jingle bells go jingle

He keeps on waiting, He keeps on waiting
Through another Christmas Day
Christmas trees and tinsel
