

Fifty Tears For Every Kiss

Cliff Richard

Oh, I'm paying for your kisses
In the tears I shed for you
50 tears for every kiss you
For a love that wasn't true

Oh, I bought so many kisses
When I didn't know the cost
But the time has come to pay you
For the love that I have lost

50 tears for every kiss you
Oh, the price was high, it's true
But I'll shed a million more, dear
For only one more kiss from you

Yes, I'm paying for your kisses
And I'll pay with from my heart
50 tears for every kiss you
For the love that fell apart

Yes, I'm paying for your kisses
And I'll pay with from my heart
50 tears for every kiss you
For the love that fell apart
For the love that fell apart
