

Once In A While

Cliff Richard

I think of this most every night
How hard it is to get it alright?
I'm lookin' here, I'm lookin' there
I see a heart broken pieces everywhere

Wouldn't you try, wouldn't you know?
Try so hard, still you let it all go
Too much trouble, too much pain
I think, I'm gonna have that luck again

What'll I do if you walk away?
What'll I do if you walk away?
Well, I haven't a chance
No, I haven't a chance

Once in a while I get this feelin'
Now and again, I'm all in a daze
Time after time, I ask myself this
Will you walk away?
Once in a while, I get this feelin'

Seems all day and night time too
I don't belong, I'm just passin' through
I guess you're right, I think too much
Still in all, I miss your touch

A crazy notion, a careless thought
I start to worry and time gets short
Well, think of this my dear young one
The time to act has just begun

What'll I do if you walk away?
What'll I do if you walk away?
Well, I haven't a chance
No, I haven't a chance

Once in a while I get this feelin'
Now and again, I'm all in a daze
Time after time, I ask myself this
Will you walk away?
Once in a while, I get this feelin'

Thinkin' of this every night

Once in a while I get this feelin'
Now and again, I'm all in a daze
Time after time, I ask myself this
Will you walk away?

Once in a while I get this feelin'
Now and again, I'm all in a daze
Time after time, I ask myself this
Will you walk away?
Once in a while, I get this feelin'

What'll I do if you walk away?
Once in a while, I get this feelin'

What'll I do if you walk away?
Time after time, I'm feelin' having that luck again

What'll I do if you walk away?
Once in a while, I get the feelin'
What'll I do if you walk away?
Time after time, I'm feelin' having that luck again
What'll I do if you walk away?
