

Reborn

Cliff Richard

Falling into you will be the death of me
But what a perfect way for me to go
The truth is baby you deserve the best of me
And I want you to know
Yeah I want you to know

That I, I'm coming alive
Out of the ashes, out of the dust
You reached through the fire and you pulled me up

Out of the shadows, into the light
Baby you saved my life
And I'm reborn, yeah I'm reborn

Falling in this beautiful oblivion
I never want my feet to touch the ground
Even if the darkness calls my name again
I won't turn around, no I won't turn around

'Cause I, I'm coming alive
Out of the ashes out of the dust
You reached through the fire and you pulled me up
Out of the shadows, into the light
Baby you saved my life
And I'm reborn, yeah I'm reborn

Out of the ashes, out of the dust
Into the light

Out of the ashes out of the dust
You reached through the fire and you pulled me up
Out of the shadows into the light
Baby you saved my life
And I'm reborn, yeah I'm reborn

Falling into you would be the death of me
But what a perfect way for me to go
