

Sam

Cliff Richard

Du-du-du-du-du-du-du-du.....

Sam, tell her you love her sometime
Show her you need her one time
Don't give her such a hard time
Don't turn your back on her

Sam, you know as well as I do
That she thinks the whole world of you
She only wants to love you
Don't you throw her love away
You'll need her love one day

Sam, you're a lucky man
If only you could see
Sam, any other man would give the world
To be with her today
Listen to what'd I say

Oh, Sam, open your eyes and see her
Like other people see her
You're gonna find you need her
Deep down you really love her, Sam

Du-du-du-du-du-du-du-du-du.....

Oh, Sam, you know as well as I do
That she thinks the whole world of you
She only wants to love you
Don't you throw her love away
You'll need her love one day

Sam, you're a lucky man
If only you could see
Sam, any other man would give the world
To be with her today
Listen to what'd I say

Oh, Sam, open your eyes and see her
Like other people see her
You're gonna find you need her
Deep down you really love her, Sam

Sam, are you listening to me, Sam
Sam, you'd better believe me, Sam
You're gonna need her
Sam, you're gonna need her
You'd better believe me.....
