

Stardust

Cliff Richard

When it's all a mess
And life is nothing special, special
You feel you're powerless
Waiting for something special, special
You don't see me you like I see you
You don't realise all you've got to do is

Make a wish
And put it in an iron fist
Blow yourself a magic kiss
And hold it to your heart

Then you raise your hand
As high as your arm can stand
Show it to the moon man
He knows who you are

Wrap it in a sheet of love
Tie it in a bow of trust
And sprinkle it with stardust

When is it good enough
When is it ever special, special
Until you look above
The view is nothing special, special
All of your dreams are gonna find you
When you realise all you gotta do is

Make a wish
And put it in an iron fist
Blow yourself a magic kiss
And hold it to your heart

Then you raise your hand
As high as your arm can stand
Show it to the moon man
He knows who you are

Wrap it in a sheet of love
Tie it in a bow of trust
And sprinkle it with stardust

Make a wish
Put it in an iron fist
Blow yourself a magic kiss
Hold it to your heart

And then you raise your hand
As high as your arm can stand
Show it to the moon man
He knows who you are

Wrap it in a sheet of love
Tie it in a bow of trust
And sprinkle it with stardust
And sprinkle with stardust
Sprinkle it with stardust
