Under Your Spell

Cliff Richard

The leaves are on the trees
I feel the summer breeze
And everybody knows that you're mine
You are mine

I may be far away
But each and every day
I think of nothing else
But holding you close to me
Oh, my love, please believe that

I am under your spell
And I don't want to break away
I am under your spell
And I don't want to break away

To live without your love
Is hard to contemplate
'Cause I was meant for you
And you for me
You are mine

I've overcome the pain
To find your love again
I'm glad that I'm the one
Who's holding you close to me
Oh, my love, please believe that

I am under your spell
And I don't want to break away
I am under your spell
And I don't want to break away

Don't wanna break away

I am, I'm under your spell
And I don't want to break away again
I am, I'm under your spell
And I don't want to break away
No, I don't want to break away
