

Ain't That A Kick In The Head

Climax Blues Band

You stole my heart with a single word
Now you got nothin' to say
I heard you cryin' in the middle of the night
And you were gone the very next day
I guess you had your reasons
But you never made them clear
Just left a note on the bedside table
Sayin' I gotta get out of here

Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head

I made a call to your sister
She said you'd gone to the sun
And that you needed to get away
To have yourself a little fun
I asked her who you were gone with
She said that she couldn't tell
So I rang my best friend for a bit of advice
I found he'd gone as well

Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head

Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head

I've got your things together
[?] in a bag
I took them round to your sister's house
And said that this is all you had Got home to find a postcard from you
And this is what you had to say
Honey my trip to the sun
Hadn't gone as you planned
And you wanna come back and stay

Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head

Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in the head
