

The Movie Queen

Climax Blues Band

Night dreaming of Hollywood
She's staring at the silver screen
She would turn back the time if she thought she could Cos she's living in the corner of a bad dream
Wrong side of reality the magic there [?] are rows away
See the bright shining star that you used to be
And watch the way the sadness disappears

And Lord knows the days are lonely, living all alone waiting fo r the phone
But it's all right she's a star tonight, the Movie Queen

No future and no regrets
She's dreaming dreams of yesterday
For to make it no matter how hard it gets Cos she's waiting for the midnight matinee

And Lord knows the days are lonely, living all alone waiting fo
r the phone
But it's all right cos she's here tonight, the Movie Queen

Night dreaming of Hollywood
She's staring at the silver screen
She would turn back the time if she thought she could
Cos tomorrow always comes a day to soon

And Lord knows the days are lonely, living all alone waiting fo
r the phone
But it's all right she's a star tonight, the Movie Queen

And Lord knows the days are lonely, living all alone waiting fo
r the phone
But it's all right cos she's here tonight, the Movie Queen
