

What's Your Name

Climax Blues Band

You're dressed for the night
Drinkin' cheap wine
Baby that's fine
I'm down to meet you
I don't know why
You caught my eye
You're really not my type
But I'm dyin' to meet you

I'm watchin' you dance
Clappin' your hands
On the one and the three
I'm still dyin' to meet you
Stand out in the crowd
You're just a little too loud
In your cheap jewelry
I'm still tryin' to meet you

Hey!
What's your name!
Just wanna say!
That you're drivin' me crazy
Hey!
What's your name!
Just wanna say!
Won't somebody save me from you

I'm takin' you home
You're on the phone
Tellin' your friends
How I was dyin' to meet you
In the back of the cab
All the drinks that you've had
End up in your bag
'Cause I was tryin' to kiss you

Hey!
What's your name!
Just wanna say!
That you're drivin' me crazy
Hey!
What's your name!
Just wanna say!
Won't somebody save me from you

That was all in the past
Knew it just wouldn't last
Started movin' too fast
As I was dyin' to leave you
Too much time spent
We're living events
That have built up the fence
So I couldn't see you

So hey!
Now I know your name!
Just wanna say!

That you're drivin' me crazy
Hey!
It's not the same!
Just wanna say!
Won't somebody save me

So hey!
Now I know your name!
Just wanna say!
That you're drivin' me crazy
Hey!
It's not the same!
Just wanna say!
Won't somebody save me from you
Won't somebody save me
Won't somebody save me

Hey!
What's your name!
I just wanna say!
That you're drivin' me crazy
Hey!
It's not the same!
Just wanna say!
Won't somebody save me from you
Won't somebody save me
Won't somebody save me
