Climie Fisher

Climie Fisher - Fire on the ocean
Last night I finally realized what I've been searching for so long.
Something happened to me, such a beautiful feeling can't be wrong.
It's a physical thing when you're with me,
it's a spiritual flame you give me.
Fire on the ocean, baby, when you're lying by my side.
Fire on the ocean, baby, bringing my love to life,
burning into this heart of mine.
Last night I really believed that your body and soul controlled the heavens.
You loved me like I've never been,
I prayed every moment it would last forever.
You light up the night when you're with me,
feel the passion rise within me.
Fire on the ocean, baby, when you're lying by my side.
Fire on the ocean, baby, you're the sunrise in the midnight hour.
Fire on the ocean, baby, bringing my love to life,
burning into this heart of mine.
It's a miracle I ever found you,
now I just can't live without you.
Fire on the ocean, baby, when you're lying by my side.
Fire on the ocean, baby, you're the sunrise in the midnight hour.
Fire on the ocean, baby, bringing my love to life,
burning into this heart of mine.
Fire on the ocean, baby, when you're lying by my side.
Fire on the ocean, baby, you're the sunrise in the midnight hour.
Fire on the ocean, baby, bringing my love to life,
burning into this heart of mine.
