

Misty

Clinic

With your fortune in the trade
[?] down the lane
Waiting, waiting at your door
Fill your boots and come for more
You fill your boots and it's just begun

As your soul warps to its core
With photographs left from war
Waiting, waiting at your door
Fill your boots and come for more
You fill your boots and come for more
You fill your boots and it's just begun

Misty, we've won
Misty, Misty, we've won

All on parade
Through your eyes look off your gain
Waiting, waiting at your door
Fill your boots and come for more
You fill your boots and it's just begun

Misty, we've won
Misty, Misty, we've won
