Still Holding On

Clint Black

There's something out there left for you But it's not me We've reached a point of no return it's only right I set you free

I know I'll have to turn away But there's nowhere for my love to go And there won't come a day When I won't honor what we've vowed But I'll go on with my life We can even say goodbye for now if If that's what we have to do But here in my heart

When my arms are empty darlin' I'm still holdin' on to you We can't deny that this one's Out of our control

Stronger than the both of us And bound to take its toll I can stand the test of time And as far as I can see

There are no walls that we can't climb Standin' between you and me But I'll go on with my life We can even say goodbye for now if If that's what we have to do But here in my heart

When my arms are empty darlin' I'm still holdin' on to you And there's a place you'll always be No matter where you are You're here with me

When the world is turning upside down Together we can stand our ground We can even say goodbye for now if If that's what we have to do But here in my heart

Even when my arms are empty darlin' I'm still holdin' on to you I'm still holdin' on to you
