

Alive

Clint Lowery

I feel the pouring rain
Wash away all the glory days
And all those things that we never say
Will run us down and bury us

No...
We take it all
And push it down to fill the void
(But that's not good enough)

We said
You come around here
You're going off the deep end
We think
You'd rather be alive than dead
(Rather be alive than dead)
We say
You come around here
You're going back in pieces
We think
You'd rather be alive than dead

Forget all those plans we make
The constant weight of our misery
We're so blind and half past dead
Please find yourself and let go of this

No...
We take it all
And push it down to fill the void
(But that's not good enough)

We said
You come around here
You're going off the deep end
We think
You'd rather be alive than dead
(Rather be alive than dead)
We say
You come around here
You're going back in pieces
We think
You'd rather be alive than dead
Rather be alive than dead

Curse the weak
Curse the eager ones who go along
Blame the sheep
Blame the cowards and the cynicals
Am I the only one,
Who sees the light coming through?
I do (I do)

We said
You come around here
You're going off the deep end
We think

You'd rather be alive than dead
Rather be alive than dead
We say
You come around here
You're going back in pieces
We think
You'd rather be alive than dead
Rather be alive than dead
Alive than dead
Rather be alive than dead
Alive than dead
I'd rather be alive than dead
