

God Bless The Renegades

Clint Lowery

What's the meaning behind the broken heart?
Watch your feelings, try not to fall apart
I think we're dying to play the victim card
You taste like chemicals, and you are the one they want
What makes you feel good at the moment?
What breaks you down, what makes you whole?
Oh you know
Oh you know

You said it's all the rage
Love dies and we relate
I hope you're entertained
God bless the renegades
Let's watch the superstars run from the cannibals
They think they're gonna be saved
God bless the renegades
God bless the renegades
God bless the renegades

What's the reason for the guilty one's love
Go wash that blood off your hands
Oh you won't believe this, no matter what you are
We live like animals, and the cowards die alone
We die alone

You said it's all the rage
Love dies and we relate
I hope you're entertained
God bless the renegades
Let's watch the superstars run from the cannibals
They think they're gonna be saved
God bless the renegades
God bless the renegades
God bless the renegades

So tell me how do we change
We give ourselves away
No words can take the place
Beautiful lies we chase
Entirely erased

You said it's all the rage
Love dies and we relate
I hope you're entertained
God bless the renegades
Let's watch the superstars run from the cannibals
They think they're gonna be saved
God bless the renegades
God bless the renegades
God bless the renegades
God bless the renegades
God bless the renegades
