Hell never bothered me
It's been hard enough
Finding empathy
For the lonely
That love never last for long

I want better days to come
It's kinda dragging on
I don't ask for much
What I do want is love and a magic song

Woah... I kinda like feeling uninvited
I know you don't
Woah... I kinda wanted to be alone
I begging you go

Damn why'd I take so long
I really rubbed ya wrong
I kinda smile too much
In the shadows
I love when the drama comes
I'm happy for you
And all that you are
I honestly wanted you more
Than you'll ever know
My dear let go

Woah... I kinda like feeling uninvited
I know you don't
Woah... I kinda wanted to be alone
I begging you go

So don't get me wrong
You wont get a thing
My mercy is cold

So don't get me wrong
You wont get a thing
My mercy is cold

Woah... I kinda like feeling uninvited
I know you don't
Woah... I kinda wanted to be alone
I begging you go
