

She's Free

Clint Lowery

I see your fire and stone
I feel you stare too long
I'm here to right the wrongs
I'd die for your defense
I know this don't make sense
My love - but all you should know

She's so free
Broken in beautiful colors
Just tell me where to go
Please God tell me
That she's not like her father oh
I'll be around
And I'll be around to stop the world

You'll never lose face or pride
You're never gonna pay that price
You're never gonna see that side
Not gonna let you run scared
That's gonna be me instead my love
That's what I'm here for

She's so free
Broken in beautiful colors
Just tell me where to go
Please God tell me
That she's not like her father oh
I'll be around
And I'll be around to stop the world

Oh she knows just where it hurts
And nothing's good enough for us
If I go first. Then she moves on

She's so free
Broken in beautiful colors
Just tell me where to go
Please God tell me
That she's not like her father oh
I'll be around
And I'll be around to stop the world

To stop the world
To stop the world
